With the Texas Rangers winning Games 1 and 2 of their ALDS with the Tampa Bay Rays handily, fans looking to see a possible sweep in Texas have gobbled up tickets with the hopes of celebrating.

The Rangers announced late Friday night that Saturday's Game 3 of the 2010 American League Championship Series between the Rangers and Rays at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington is a complete sellout.

The Rangers Ballpark in Arlington parking lots will open at 11:00 a.m. with the gates to Rangers Ballpark opening at 1:00 p.m. First pitch for Game 3 of the ALDS is 4:07 p.m.

For Game 4 (if necessary) on Sunday, obstructed view seats and standing room tickets remain. The Rangers Ballpark in Arlington parking lots would open at 7:00 a.m. with the gates to Rangers Ballpark opening at 9:00 a.m. First pitch is scheduled for 12:07 p.m.
