

The Business of Sports Network , a series of resources dedicated to sports outside the lines, has the following position open at this time.

Volunteer Authors/Bloggers

Enjoy writing about sports? Do you follow sports outside the lines, keep up with the business of sports, and have blogged, or written papers on sports? If so, the Business of Sports Network may have a spot for you.

We are currently accepting positions for volunteer bloggers and authors of first-rate articles and columns. We are currently looking for those that have an interest in covering basketball at this time

Please send an email to info@businessofsportsnetwork.com along with your background, and/or resume with the subject line “
Volunteer Author/Blogger
”;

Intern – Database Admin or PHP coder – Joomla

The Business of Sports Network is in need of an intern to help develop database driven solutions through the Joomla Content Management System. A background in mySQL is a must. PHP code background favored. If you have worked with the Lahman Database, it is a plus.

Opportunities With The Business of Sports Network

Written by The Staff

Friday, 02 February 2007 16:00

If interested, please send an email to info@businessofsportsnetwork.com with the subject line, "Technical Intern Position". Please provide background, and or resume.

FOR THOSE WORKING TOWARD A CAREER IN SPORTS BUSINESS....

ALL INTERNS AT THE BUSINESS OF SPORTS NETWORK WILL RECEIVE LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION FOR RESUME´ PURPOSES